CPSC Recalls Star Wars Toys

In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Hasbro Inc. is voluntarily recalling more than 600,000 Star Wars Lightsaber toys for repair. The spring in the battery compartments of these toys can dislodge and lead to burn injuries from overheated or ruptured batteries. Hasbro-improved Lightsaber toys not part of this recall are annotated with a label that reads, "Now with battery protector."

Hasbro has received 38 reports of Lightsaber toy batteries overheating, including six reports of batteries rupturing. At least four consumers have reported suffering minor burns or eye irritation.

Both Lightsaber models subject to Hasbro's recall-for-repair have been sold in military exchanges since May.

The Safety Commission strongly recommends consumers stop using the affected models immediately and obtain a free repair kit. For the repair kit and installation instructions or more information call Hasbro at 888-690-6141 anytime, or go to (www.hasbro.com) on the Internet. ## ENTERTAINMENT

Esslingen Hosts Summer Concerts

The scenic city of Esslingen, just a short drive from Stuttgart, welcomes visitors to its summer concert series Sundays at 11:30 a.m. The concert takes place by the old Rathaus (city hall) featuring the following groups and dates: Upper Esslingen Music Club July 11 and Sept. 19, Mettingen Hard Harmonica Club July 18 and Esslingen Hand Harmonica Orchestra July 25.

Stuttgart Serves Up Fish Festival

The first Stuttgart festival of the summer season takes visitors far away to a harbor in northern Germany when the Hamburger Fischmarkt makes a big splash July 9 to 18.

As expected, there are lots of fish at this traveling 284-year-old marketplace festival. Fresh from the boat, they come to Stuttgart's Karlsplatz live or cooked and ready to consume. But fish isn't all the market has to offer. Fruit, antiques, flowers, indoor plants, wurst and more are available for reasonable prices.

Salespeople entertain visitors with their fast tongues and flashy salesmanship. Sometimes they surprise shoppers and throw free fruit, flowers and fish out into the crowd. Traditional harbor and seamen's songs and bands playing rhythm and blues, as well as jazz, contribute to the mood.

The market is open daily from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. except Sundays, when it opens at 11 a.m. Stuttgart's Karlsplatz is located in the heart of downtown next to the Altes Schloss.

Private Dance Instruction on Patch

Professional swing, country, ballroom and Latin dance instruction is still available on a private basis throughout the summer. Lessons are held at Patch Youth Services and the Swabian Special Events Center. For more information or to schedule lessons call Stephanie Fagan, 0711-856-6788. Group classes resume in October.

Local Chorus Presents Concert

The Stuttgart German-American Community Chorus presents a varied bouquet of perennial choral favorites – opera, sacred, musicals, romantic, folk and spirituals – July 17, 8 p.m. at the Allianz-Vortragssaal, near Charlottenplatz in downtown Stuttgart. General tickets are $10 each, $8 for students, and can be purchased at the door or from choral members. For more information call Dave Beckner, 0711-463-463.
